Trolley lines on public roads.

Advocate General's Opinion No. 20 of 1943

Bombay Act No. L. of 1948.

The attention of H. & L.G.D. is invited to the recent Bombay Act L of 1948 whereunder power has been taken to permit laying down of trolley lines or rails along public roads for private use. The difficulty pointed out by Advocate General in his opinion of 1943 in respect of laying down trolley lines on a public road no longer survives. H. & L.G.D. may reconsider in the light of the new Act (Act L of 1948)

---.
R.L.A's opinion No. 11592 dated 7-12-1948

R.L.A's opinion No. 11592 dated 7-12-1948 does not require any reconsideration. If the Sevalia Cement Works proposes to apply to the Central Government under section 4(1) of the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 for authorising the construction of a tramways, it can do so only with the consent of the local authority of the circle and of the road-authority which is the Bombay Government in the present case. Consequently, if the Sevalia Cement works applies to Government for its consent to an application being made to the Central Government under section 4(1)(b) Government may consider whether or not they should give their consent.
